

Maria do Céu da Cunha Rêgo has a degree in Law from the Faculty of Law of the University of Lisbon. She is currently a member of the Technical Scientific Group of the Consultative Council of CIG, of CIEG and of several NGOs. She has been developing training in the scientific domain of equality between women and men and she is regularly invited as a speaker at seminars and similar initiatives. She also authors training benchmarks and opinion articles. Among many other positions, she acted as representative of Portugal at the Board of Directors and at the Expert Forum of EIGE; as State Secretary for Equality in the XIV Portuguese Constitutional Government; as President of CITE; as Vice-President of CIDM. In March 2019, she was awarded the Maria Barroso Prize.